Four Nature Reserves.

Burton, Clauthorpe and Holme.

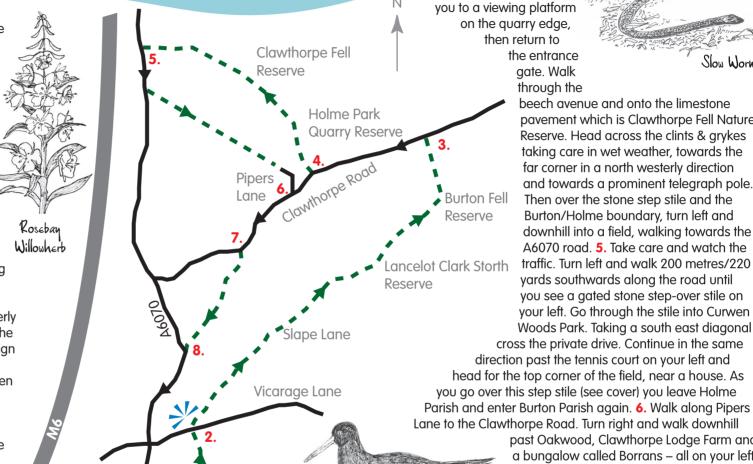

From Burton Square follow the path signed Boon Town Lane eastwards. 1. At the junction turn left onto Kidnappers Lane, walk through two kissing gates, a wooden gate and another kissing gate until you reach Vicarage Lane. 2. Cross the road onto Slape Lane passing the sign Bridle path to Burton Fell. Pause to look at the view and the Jubilee panorama plinth erected by Burton Parish Council in 2005. Continue along the path 1.5km (almost a mile) as it meanders upwards passing the entrance to the Nature Reserve called Lancelot Clark Storth on your right with a wooden seat. Go through the gate and keeping the wall on your left you will reach another plinth with information about the fauna and flora in Burton Fell reserve. Turn left through the gate into a small wood, take the right fork which leads to a small gate, then across two fields to a metal gate accessing > and walk down the road for 800m (1/2 mile) in a westerly direction until you see the Footpath to Holme sign 4. on the right. Go through the wooden step-over stile by the gate. On your right is the gated entrance to Holme
